

Jacqueline Hurst

Jacqueline Hurst is a writer, a preacher and a teacher. She is not only a Lover of God, but also a Lover of God's Word. [Psalm 19:7-10; Psalm 119:97] She passionately believes that the Word of God is life to us and health to our flesh. [Proverbs 4:22] Regardless of the subject matter she will encourage and challenge you to develop an intimate relationship with God and a Love and hunger for His Word. Her favorite Bible Character is King David because he was a man after God's own heart. He was after the heart of God. She, like David, is in passionate pursuit of God. Her Mission Statement is "That I may live a life that is pleasing unto the Lord; that is impacting changing and making a difference in my world; that I may say 'follow me as I follow Christ.'" This mission and mindset are brought to every lesson that she teaches whether in a classroom or one-on-one. Jacquie served faithfully at Zoe City church under Pastors John and Sandra Posey from 1996-2018. (22 yrs.), serving in different areas of ministry. In 2010 there she was ordained and licensed as an Elder. In January of 2019 Jacquie was released on assignment to Beacon of Light Christian Church to assist Pastor Malcolm Lewis and Elder Nedra Lewis with the vision that God has given them. She presently serves as the Praise and Worship Leader. She attended and taught MEDS School of Ministry at Zoe City Church Her greatest joy is seeing the light bulb come on in the face of a person when God and His Word becomes real to them.
